SIR,

In forwarding herewith for reference and early return the medical certificate granted by the Civil Surgeon in charge of the Maternity Hospital, Bangalore, on behalf of Rahimanamma, late Conductress, Hindustani Girls' School, Bangalore, I have the honour to enquire whether the certificate under reference may be accepted considering the Gosha prevailing among Mohamadans, in consequence of which the applicant cannot be compelled to appear before the District Medical Officer, Bangalore, to produce a medical certificate from that officer as required by article 307 M.S.R.

2. I may further add that the certificate granted by the Civil Surgeon in charge of the Maternity Hospital, has been accepted in the case of Chand Bee whose pension was sanctioned in G.O. No.Fl.3629-30/S&A 595-11-6 dated the 7th January 1913.

3. I would, in this connection, suggest the desirability of your kindly obtaining the orders of Government to accept certificates granted by the Civil Surgeon in charge of the Maternity Hospital,
